

WHAT IS THE WORLD DOING ABOUT POPs?- THE STOCKHOLM CONVENTION

Stockholm convention is a global convention that aims to protect human health and the environment from the effects of persistent organic pollutants (POPs). The Convention entered into force in 2004. The Stockholm Convention requires parties to restrict and ultimately eliminate the production, use, trade, release and storage of POPs.

Eliminating Persistent Organic Pollutants through
Sound Management of Chemicals